

GAGAKU

perhaps we
get controlled insanity

THE MUSEUM OF CONTROLLED MADNESS

sane
man looks both
ways before
attempting to
cross los angeles
county
roads

in santa monica about once out of 10 times I drive

I see a fellow crossing at random
not looking at anything and walking

usually over a 4 lane packed speedy boulevard
he always wants to die
none of us
give it to him

we don't need
aggravation and the papers and the red tape

GAGAKU

big bird chasing smaller bird away from
wild
birdseed

big fish chasing smaller fish away from fish food

big poet chasing smaller poet away from magazine
editor

the beasts
th' lovely beasts
have a tough time transcending nature

and nature needs transcending at times
